Fall 2014

Northern State University Vision/Values

Vision: Northern State University will boast an unparalleled residential liberal arts education and become a leading regional university integrating education and technology.

NSU's students, faculty, and staff are drawn together by the following values:

Community: With strong ties to our city and region, we are a welcoming community of scholars and learners with a focus on a student-centered environment.

Scholarship: We engage in research and creative activities in an innovative atmosphere of intellectual rigor, with academic freedom and integrity.

Citizenship: We educate individuals for a lifetime of learning and service to their ever-changing communities, nations, and world.

The Campus

Northern State University includes 72.5 tree-shaded acres and 21 buildings including the newly developed Center for State-Wide E-Learning, the Beulah Williams Library and Learning Resources Center, the Johnson Fine Arts Center, which is the hub of much of the campus and civic cultural events, and one of the finest athletic centers in the state, the Joseph Barnett Physical Education and Convocation Center and the Clark Swisher Athletic Complex

As a demonstration of NSU's commitment to serving its students, the campus also includes abundant computer labs, smart and digital network classrooms, the NSU Child Care Center, six residence halls, including 2 all-suite halls, and the newly renovated NSU Student Center for student activities.
