

JEFFREY CRANE

MEMORIAL ENDOWMENT

The Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences requests nominations from the Jeffrey Crane Memorial Endowment. The purpose of this scholarship is to recognize a junior student who demonstrates outstanding academic and leadership qualities.

Eligibility:

1. The student must be in his/her junior year.
2. The student must be pursuing a major in a discipline within the College of Arts and Sciences.
3. The student should have a minimum overall GPA of 3.5.
4. The student should be a leader in campus and/or community activities.
5. The student should be able to articulate well in writing his or her qualifications for the scholarship.

Procedure:

1. The faculty member who wishes to nominate a student should inform the student and have the student fill out an application form, which will include space for a 300-word essay on an assigned question.
2. The faculty member should forward the application and essay and a letter of nomination for the student. The applications must be received in the Dean's office by Noon on April 4, 2019.
3. A committee comprised of the Dean and the Department Chairs in the College of Arts and Sciences will review the nominations and make a selection.
