Nov. 10, 2015, 3 p.m.
Aberdeen Civic Arena, Aberdeen
Originally from Ipswich, South Dakota, Travis Netzer holds a Bachelor of Music Education from Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota, and a Master of Arts Degree in Tuba Performance from Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Netzer is currently a doctoral candidate in tuba performance at Arizona State University where he serves as the graduate teaching assistant with Dr. Deanna Swoboda. He formerly served as the 5-8th grade band director at Thompson Ranch Elementary School in El Mirage, Arizona and as the Adjunct Tuba Professor at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek, Michigan.

His performance distinctions include being a semi-finalist for the Solo Artist Division and the Ensemble Division of the 2014 International Tuba Euphonium Conference and National Runner up in the 2010 Music Teachers National Association Collegiate Brass Solo Competition.
DR. BOYD PERKINS serves as Director of Bands at Northern State University, Aberdeen, South Dakota. A native of Brookings, S.D., Perkins earned his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Wind Conducting from the University of Iowa. Additional degrees include a Master of Arts degree in Wind Conducting from The University of Iowa and a Bachelor of Science in Music Education from South Dakota State University.

JESSICA PERKINS

A native of Davenport, Iowa, Jessica Perkins has led successful and innovative band and orchestra programs at all levels of instruction. She holds a B.M. in Music Education and Euphonium Performance and a master’s degree in Music Education, both from the University of Iowa. Prior to her appointment at Northern State University, she spent five years as the orchestra director at Simmons Middle School in Aberdeen, S.D. Under her direction, the Aberdeen Honor Orchestra performed at the South Dakota Music Educators Association Conference in Rapid City.

Before she moved to South Dakota, she served as Director of Bands at Xavier High School, a large high school in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. During her time there, she led the band to the first Division “I” ratings in both marching band and concert band in the history of the school.

Perkins maintains an active schedule as a euphonium soloist, having been featured with high school, community, and university bands and orchestras throughout Iowa, Minnesota, and South Dakota. In 2000, Perkins was the winner of the Music Teachers National Association Collegiate Brass Solo Artist competition, as well as the University of Iowa Concerto Competition. She also appeared as a featured guest artist at the Hawkeye Regional Tuba-Euphonium Conference at the University of Iowa. She is a board member of the South Dakota Music Educators Association, where she serves as the editor of The South Dakota Musician, the official publication of the SDMEA. Perkins has also been the staff music arranger for the NSU Marching Wolves since 2008.
Dr. Terry Beckler currently serves as Chair of the music department as well as Percussion Professor and Assistant Director of Bands at Northern State University. Prior to his appointment at NSU, Beckler served as Director of Bands at Southwest Minnesota State University in Marshall, Minn. and Director of Bands at Huron University. He also has ten years of public school experience as band director for the Red Rock Central (Lamberton, Minn.) and Sioux Valley (Volga, S.D.) school districts. Beckler has been a member of the 147th Army Band based in Mitchell, S.D. for over twenty years. He enlisted in 1986 as a percussionist and since 1998 has served as commander/conductor of this group. In January of 2006 the 147th Army Band was awarded the Howard Citation of Musical Excellence administered by the John Philip Sousa Foundation. Beckler currently holds the rank of Chief Warrant Officer 3. He is an active clinician in North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota and a former member of the Troopers Drum & Bugle Corps.

Frederic J.B. Hemke

Prior to his appointment at Northern State University, Mr. Hemke was the Director of Jazz Performance Studies and saxophone instructor at the University of Missouri-Columbia for ten years. He received his bachelor's and master's of music degrees from Northwestern University. He has performed as a guest artist in many international venues. He has been featured with the Amazonia Jazz Ensemble at The International Festival of Music of Pará in Belem, Brazil. He premiered new music commissioned for him in Poland with the Wroclaw Philharmonic Orchestra and was a guest artist at the Athens International Jazz Festival with the Athens Big Band. He has taught as a visiting scholar in jazz at the Franz Liszt College of Music in Budapest Hungary and soloed at a jazz festival in that city. He has been featured as a soloist at the North American Saxophone Alliance. Mr. Hemke is a member of the Music Teachers National Association, Music Educators National Conference, the International Association of Jazz Educators, and the National Honorary Music Society Pi Kappa Lambda.
Dr. Grant Manhart holds a Doctor of Music degree in Trumpet Performance and Literature with minors in music history and jazz studies from Indiana University, a master’s degree in trumpet performance with a minor in Jazz Studies from Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music, and a bachelor’s degree in trumpet performance from the University of Wisconsin. His extensive performing experience includes classical, jazz and popular music. Dr. Manhart is busy as a performer, clinician and adjudicator.

Dr. Audrey Miller is assistant professor of music at Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota, teaching applied clarinet, music history, and music technology. Before coming to NSU, Audrey lived in Phoenix, Ariz. where received her Doctorate of Musical Arts Degree in clarinet performance from Arizona State University working as a Graduate Teaching Assistant and studying with Dr. Robert Spring and Dr. Joshua Gardner. Her research focused on commissioning new works for clarinet/bass clarinet and other woodwind instruments. She is a graduate of Florida State University with a M.M, where she studied with Frank Kowalsky and earned a B.M. from Western Washington University, studying with Eugene Zoro.

The NSU music scholarship program is one of the most attractive in the region. Based upon auditions, Northern State University awards the following scholarships:

- $2,000 per year for four years — Excellence in Music Scholarships
- $1,500 — Hatterscheidt Scholarships

Music minors and talented non-music majors may also audition for scholarships. Last year, nearly 100 music scholarships were awarded to upperclassmen and freshmen.

2015 SCHOLARSHIP AUDITION DATES:

- Feb. 19, Johnson Fine Arts Center
- Feb. 20, Johnson Fine Arts Center

If you are unable to audition on those dates, please submit a recording by Feb. 17. YouTube links are preferred. For complete information about music scholarships, contact the Music Department, Northern State University, Aberdeen, SD 57401-7198, 605-626-2497, or print the NSU Music Scholarship Application and NSU Music Scholarship Reference Form.

Furthermore, NSU offers a four-year guaranteed scholarship called the Northern WolfPACT based upon ACT scores as follows:

- $12,000 — ACT 30+
- $11,000 — ACT 28+
- $7,000 — ACT 24–27
- $5,000 — ACT 21–23

Finally, the full tuition and fees Dakota Corps Scholarship and the $5,000 South Dakota Opportunity Scholarship are available to qualified South Dakota high school graduates. Many more scholarships, grants and loans are available to students. Contact NSU Admissions, Student Center, 1200 S. Jay St., Aberdeen, SD 57401-7198, 605-626-2544, for complete information about these and other awards.
