Section 1. Course Title and Description

If the course contains a lecture and laboratory component, identify both the lecture and laboratory numbers (xxx and xxxL) and credit hours associated with each. Provide the complete description as you wish it to appear in the system course database, including pre-requisites, co-requisites, and registration restrictions.

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
GLC 302	Intersectionality	3
GLC 302L	Intersectionality Lab	1

NOTE: The Enrollment Services Center assigns short, abbreviated course title that appears on transcripts. The short title is limited to 30 characters (including spaces); meaningful but concise titles are encouraged due to space limitations in student information system.

GLC 302 Course Description
Examination of important issues, questions, and debates regarding intersectionality (the notion that race, gender, sexuality and other terrains of difference gain meaning from each other). Students analyze intersectionality as a theoretical framework and as a way to see the world, particularly critiquing and dismantling systems of power. Students explore resources drawn from sociology, cultural studies, history, and race and gender theory. Majors in the Global Language and Culture program should register for the lab component that corresponds to their language emphasis.

GLC 302L Course Description
Language lab that provides focused study of intersectionality as it pertains to the countries that speak the language associated with this lab section. Lab is taught in the language of this section. Completion of first-year courses in language emphasis or permission of instructor is required.

NOTE: Course descriptions are short, concise summaries that typically do not exceed 75 words. DO: Address the content of the course and write descriptions using active verbs (e.g., explore, learn, develop, etc.). DO NOT: Repeat the title of the course, layout the syllabus, use pronouns such as "we" and "you," or rely on specialized jargon, vague phrases, or clichés.

Section 2. Review of Course

2.1. Will this be a unique or common course (place an "X" in the appropriate box)?

Unique Course

If the request is for a unique course, institutions must review the common course catalog in the system course database to determine if a comparable common course already exists. List the two closest course matches in the common course catalog and provide a brief narrative explaining why the proposed course differs from those listed. If a search of the common course catalog determines an existing common course exists, complete the Authority to Offer an Existing Course Form. Courses requested without an attempt to find comparable courses will not be reviewed.

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
SOC 483	Sociology of Gender Roles	3
SPCM 370	Communication/Social Identity	3

Provide explanation of differences between proposed course and existing system catalog courses below:

While SOC 483 does look at the cultural differences associated with a social grouping, the specific focus is on gender roles, and though SPCM 370 does look at more varied social identities in examining influences associated with behaviors and communication, GLC 302 provides a more comprehensive view of social groupings and their interconnectedness. GLC 302 also explores social, economic, and political ramifications of this interconnectedness. There is no equivalent to the proposed GLC 302L courses.
